- improve staff retention

1.5_x

How much more likely an employee is to stay within an organization where wellness is actively promoted to all staff.

8x

How much more likely employees are to be more engaged when wellness is a workplace priority.

The number of employees engaged in company wellness programs who agree the program improves productivity and reduces absenteeism.

HOW?

WATCH YOUR STAFF COME ALIVE!

Tips to bring practical, simple and affordable wellness to your workplace with alive@work

- Influence positive change in employee personal health and well-being.
- Engage employees right where they work on desktop, tablet or smartphone.

The amount of sick leave a targeted workplace wellness program can cut.

EACH MONTH

- → You receive a branded URL to your company landing page.
- → You can include a message of your choosing —like corporate encouragement, a challenge to staff or a healthy living contest.

(option not available at the Bronze level)

- You engage your team in each new issue through an intranet link or direct email.
- → You get a list of resources and ideas to jumpstart a real conversation about wellness in your workplace.

It's your choice: we drive the engagement; you're in the driver's seat!
